ETHIOPIAN & ERITREAN DISCOVERY DAY

Kes Fente from the village of Gälawdios. Photograph © Sean Winslow

Bodleian MS. Aeth. D. 19, fol. 2r.

Over the next year the University of Oxford hopes to work with Ethiopian and Eritrean communities to find out more about these precious objects and plan events which will share them with the public.
We hope you can join us!

FREE WORKSHOP

Introducing manuscripts from Ethiopia and Eritrea

Saturday 1 Sept 2018

Classics Faculty, 66 St Giles', Oxford, OX1 3LU

Free workshop (with lunch) followed by small exhibition of manuscripts in Blackwell Hall, Weston Library, at the Bodleian Libraries, Broad St, Oxford.

Further details and booking:
www.classics.ox.ac.uk/event/introducing-manuscripts-from-ethiopia-and-eritrea

Community-curated exhibition

Summer 2019

Weston Library, Broad Street, Oxford, OX1 3BF

We would love to meet people who would like to work with us over the coming year to help create an Ethiopian & Eritrean display at the Bodleian Libraries for summer 2019.

Please come for a chat with the project team today at the information table next to the small display.

Bodleian Libraries
UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD

For more details of this project and to take part, please contact Rosie Sharkey

Tel: 01865 277084
Email: education@bodleian.ox.ac.uk